

PRINCIPLES OF Community Organizing 2010

March 24-27, 2010
La Grande, Oregon

WORC's training sessions cover the most important skills for organizers and leaders of grassroots community organizations.

- Working with the media
- Why we organize
- Developing an issue campaign
- Planning & taking actions
- Healthy organizations
- Grassroots fundraising
- Roles of leaders & staff
- Membership recruitment
- Leadership development
- Building strong relationships
- Running good meetings

“Just a few days after returning from the workshop, I had the opportunity to do my first large-donor ask. The result was a $750.00 donation to Dakota Rural Action. Because of my experience at this workshop, I feel I will be able to continue my fundraising work for DRA with this same level of comfort and confidence.”

—Wyatt Urlacher, member

An application is on the back of this flyer.

A P P L I C A T I O N

March 24-27, 2010
La Grande, Oregon
Location: To Be Announced
Apply by March 10, 2010

Name _____

Organization _____

Current Position or Title _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone (wk) _____ (hm) _____

Email _____ Fax _____

Arrival Date & Time _____

Departure Date & Time _____

I want to participate because:

Members and Staff in the WORC Network

- Contact the Director of your organization and make sure you have her/his support to apply (check box).
- Complete the application and submit it, including an explanation of why you want to participate (check box).
 - WORC will notify you once your application has been approved.
 - If approved, the tuition fee is $50.

Non-WORC Group Participants

- Complete the application and submit it, including an explanation of why you want to participate (check box).
 - WORC will notify you once your application has been approved.
 - If approved, the tuition fee is $300.

You can submit your application:

- On line at : <http://worc.org> and click on the Leadership Development tab.
- By mail to WORC, 220 S. 27th Street, Suite B, Billings, MT 59101.
- By fax to 406-252-1092.

Travel, meals, and lodging are the responsibility of the participants. WORC will arrange lodging at a discounted rate.

I need help arranging lodging: ___ Yes ___ No

I would like a: ___ Single ___ Double

APPLY TODAY

Space is limited. WORC leaders and staff have priority placement. WORC will reserve space in the training for you after your application is approved and your tuition fee is paid. A $50 processing fee ($10 for WORC group participants) will be charged for cancellation.

We strongly encourage you to attend the entire training. The sessions build on one another and the training is strengthened with everyone's full participation.

Questions? Contact Kevin Williams,
Director of Organizing, at 970-323-6849
or montrose@worc.org

WORC
220 S. 27th Street, Suite B
Billings, MT 59101
406-252-9672
www.worc.org